

The two best practices implemented by the Ram Krishan College are:

- Community Outreach and Growth
- Promotion of Inclusivity

BEST PRACTICE-1

Title: Community Outreach and

Growth Objectives of the Practice

- To instill values of social and national importance
- To generate awareness of community responsibilities among students

The Context

- To bridge the gap between educational institutions and social community, and to facilitate accessibility of the economically and socially marginalized people to community health and educational opportunities

The Practice

- A one-week Study – pedagogical Workshop was organized by the NSS unit of the college for the children of laborers in the neighboring village.
- The NSS volunteers visited Ranthi Village, which is famous for Mithila Painting in the world.

Evidence of success

- The Education Drive could achieve its objective of providing basic literacy skills among the children of laborers and workers.
- Many of the Female Students of different departments are encouraged in Mithila Arts for income.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required

- Lack of funds to facilitate the Education Drive.
- Additional funds were required to provide resources at Ranthi Village for those students who want to learn Mithila painting arts.

Note

Through the community outreach programs at the elderly home, students were able to connect with the elderly people and understand the ethics of care as they are often abandoned by the society.

BEST PRACTICE-2

Title: Promotion of

Inclusivity Objectives of the Practice

- To promote practices of inclusivity in teaching-learning processes besides excellence in academics.
- To develop infrastructure for differently abled and marginalized students.

The Context

Driven by the commitment for bridging social disparities, Ram Krishan College has adopted a comprehensive plan to complement core academic competencies with social empathy and appreciation for diversity and inclusion.

The Practice

- The college through its various social work and outreach forums such as National Service Scheme (NSS), Women Development Cell (WDC), Equal Opportunity Cell (EOC) promotes inclusivity at all levels.
- The college organizes programmes intending to create awareness amongst students towards different forms of challenges.

Evidence of Success

- Various initiatives were executed by NSS, WDC and EOC around the issues of women empowerment and inclusivity.
- The college has established itself as a friendly space for the differently abled by installing lifts and tactile paths for their accessibility.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required

- Initial challenges in wider outreach amongst students due to lack of awareness of social issues.
- Additional funds are required for organizing outreach activities and to develop infrastructure for the differently abled.
